General Notes:

Margaret Holme was the widow of John Holme, Esq. in 1739 when she married John Miller. John Holme was mayor of Kendal at the time of his death. He and Margaret had children, including a daughter, Mary, who was born after his death. Her maiden name is unknown.

Margaret married John Holme. John died 28 Jun 1736⁵ and was buried in Kendal, Westmorland, England.⁶

- 2 F i. Margaret Holme was christened 17 Mar 1733 in Kendal, Westmorland, England⁷ and died in 1803 in Northumberland County, England⁸ at age 70.

General Notes: Margaret was residing at Lemington, Northumberland, England, an area in Newcastle Upon Tyne, when she wrote her will on 26 Sept 1791. The will was entered into probate on 31 Aug 1803 by her son Thomas, the executor of the will.

Margaret was the daughter of John and Margaret Holme of Kendal. Her father was the mayor of Kendal when he died in 1737, leaving her mother a widow with small children. Her mother married again, in 1739, to John Miller of Kendal.

In her will in 1803 Margaret Holme Maude left 100 pounds to her niece Margaret, daughter of Thomas Miller. Thomas Miller was one of four children of John and Margaret (Holme) Miller and would have been a half-brother to Margaret Holme Maude.

Noted events in her life were:

- Probate: 31 Aug 1803, Newcastle Upon Tyne, Northumberland, England.⁸

Westmorland County, but is now part of Cumbria County in the far northwest of England.

In the northwest floor of Holy Trinity Church in Kendal, Cumbria, England, there is a memorial inscription which reads:

Margaret was a widow when she married John on 18 Feb 1739 in Kendal and was listed as Mrs. Holme on the marriage record. Her previous husband was John Holme, Esq., mayor of Kendal when he died in 1737.

John Miller wrote his will in 1777, and died the following year. In this will, John mentions his children Thomas, William, Dorothy and Rebecca. His wife is not mentioned since she died before him, in 1763.

Margaret died on 29 March 1763 and was buried on 2 April. The burial in the parish register for that date reads, "Margaret wife of Mr. John Millers of Market Place." John died 24 April 1778 and was buried on 28 April, age 86, living at Stricklandgate. The age is different from that given in the memorial. John Miller would have been born about 1692-1695 and his wife Margaret about 1709.

A chart which has been passed down in the family showing Miller ancestry shows William Miller's parents as John Miller and his wife Maude. His wife was Margaret, widow of John Holme of Kendal. Margaret and John Holme's daughter, Margaret, married Thomas Maude, possibly leading to this confusion. The chart was possibly in the handwriting of Francis Benjamin Miller, son of Joseph Dundas Miller, or Frederick Spurstow Miller, son of Charles Edward Miller, and may have come from the research of Francis Spurstow Miller, son of Francis Benjamin Miller.

Noted events in his life were:

- Occupation: Alderman and apothecary.²⁰
- Residence: Kendal, Westmorland, England.²¹
- Will: 29 May 1777, Kendal, Westmorland, England.¹⁷

Thomas married someone.
- 7 F iii. Dorothy Miller²² was christened 12 Oct 1746 in Kendal, Westmorland, England.²⁶
General Notes: In one set of christening records for Kendal, the daughter born to Mr. Jno. & Margt. Miller of Market Place is Dorothy. The name of the family looks like it was Milnor and was written over to be Miller. In another set of christening records, it is Margaret born to Mr. Jno. & Margt. Milnor of Market Place. Both were born on the same date. The names Miller, Millner, Milnor were used interchangeably. This daughter might have been Dorothy Margaret or perhaps the name was entered incorrectly in the records. She is mentioned in her father's will as Dorothy.
- + 8 M iv. William Miller^{24,27} was born about 14 Oct 1751 in Kendal, Westmorland, England.²⁸ was christened 14 Oct 1751 in Kendal, Westmorland, England,²⁹ and died 11 Aug 1826 in Liverpool, Lancashire, England^{30,31} about age 74.

General Notes: William Spurstow Miller purchased a piece of land on the margin of the sea at Bootle and erected a castellated stone mansion, known as Miller's Castle. By the exertions of this gentleman, the road now called Derby Road, opening up the whole district, was constructed. Previous to this, there was no road to the western part of Kirkdale, near Anfield and Everton, and Bootle. This is the area where all the docks are as the River Mersey enters the Irish Sea.

Miller's Castle was built by William Spurstow Miller about 1824. This occupied the site which is now the junction of Miller's Bridge with the dock road (Regent Road). The home no longer is standing but Miller's Pub, at the end of Miller's Bridge, is currently on this spot (1988). Information on Miller's Castle was taken from The Story of Bootle by C. Lamb.
